PERSONAL DATA PROTECTION POLICY

Who is responsible for processing your personal data?

The BBVA Foundation with its registered office at Plaza de San Nicolás 4, 48005, Bilbao, Spain, email: premios@bbva.es
Sociedad de Estadística e Investigación Operativa (hereinafter SEIO) with its registered office at Plaza de las Ciencias 3, 28040, Madrid, Spain, email: oficina@seio.es
Both parties undertake to comply in full with their obligations under current legislation on the protection of personal data.

What data do we process and what will your data be used for?

The BBVA Foundation and SEIO will process the personal data provided by participants in submissions under this call and the attached documentation.

Their purpose in doing so is to facilitate administration of the award call.

The BBVA Foundation and SEIO will also use your contact details to send you communications that keep you informed of the activities they undertake, in order to promote and publicize them. You may at any time object to or order the discontinuation of these communications, without explanation, by sending an email to the following email addresses: premios@bbva.es and oficina@seio.es

How long will we store your data for?

The information provided to facilitate the administration of the call will be kept for a maximum of 3 years as required by law. It will then be erased by blocking during the applicable legal prescription periods, on expiry of which we will destroy your data. Regarding the data required to keep you informed of our activities (name and surname, postal and email address and telephone no.), they will undergo processing until such time as the applicants exercise their rights of objection, erasure or restriction of processing, as the case may be.

With whom will we share your data?

The BBVA Foundation and SEIO undertake not to pass your data on to third parties.

What rights do you have on providing us with your personal data?

- You may consult the personal data held in the files of the BBVA Foundation and SEIO (right of access)
- Request the rectification of your personal data (right to rectification)
- Request that your personal data not be processed (right to object)
- Request the deletion of your personal data (right to erasure)
- Limit the processing of your personal data in the cases envisaged (restriction of processing)
- Receive the personal data you have provided, in electronic format, and have the right to transmit those data to another entity (right of portability)

You may exercise the above rights in respect of the BBVA Foundation by writing (attaching proof of identity) to the following address: premios@bbva.es. And in respect of SEIO by writing to: oficina@seio.es
